Introducing the New Essence Series® Patio Doors

Designed to perfectly complement the rich, warm wood interiors of Essence windows, the new Essence Series sliding and swing patio doors are built with natural wood and a tough, durable fiberglass exterior. Not only are they beautiful, but you will enjoy the smooth operation and superior performance for years to come. And like Essence windows, these new patio doors are backed by the Milgard Full Lifetime Warranty including Glass Breakage Coverage.

Essence Series® 2-panel In-Swing Patio Door

Our Highest Quality Doors

- On the outside, the Essence Series patio doors feature a fiberglass exterior available in 16 powder-coated colors.
- On the inside, the solid wood frame is engineered to have no visible fasteners and is ready to take your stain, paint or finish.
- Sliding doors are engineered with a weather-strip system and top quality rollers that provide an impressively smooth and quiet operation.
- You'll enjoy superior energy performance with SunCoat® Low-e glass coatings (standard) or choose from other Milgard energy-saving options.
- Let the fresh air in anytime with the optional screen that is top-hung for smooth operation to minimize jams.
- Make it your own with grids, decorative glass or expand your view with transoms. You can also add operable sidelites to swing doors.
- These beautiful door handles come in seven finishes and with an optional exterior keyed lock.
- Add the optional SmartTouch® bolt on the sliding door for additional points of security on the door or to secure it in a vented position.
